Glory to Jesus Christ

2nd – Our Holy Father, Nicephor, Patriarch of Constantinople. — Our Holy Father, Alexander, Archbishop of Constantinople. He resolutely stood against the Arian heresy, assisted at the Council of Nicea. The awful death of Arius is regarded as a response to the Saint's prayer for deliverance from the evils of this heresy. He died A.D. 340, in the reign of Emperor Constantinus.

3rd – St. Lucillian, Martyr and, with him, Claudius, Hypatius, Paul, and Dionysius. Lucillian, and old man, was first tortured and, with the four – mere boys – tied to the stake to be burned. Rain, however, extinguished the fire. He was then crucified and the boys beheaded under Aurelian, A.D. 273. — St. Paula, Martyr, a Christian maiden of Byzantium, who was tortured and beheaded A.D. 273.

4th – Our Holy Father, Metrophanes, Patriarch of Constantinople, suffered imprisonment in the persecution under Diocletian, Emperor. He died A.D. 325, in the reign of Constantine the Great, Emperor.

5th – St. Dorotheus, Priest-Martyr, Bishop of Tyre, suffered banishment under Julian the Apostate A.D. 362, being 107 years of age.

6th – Our Venerable Father, Bessarion, Wonderworker. Because of his virtues and miracles, the Greek writers compare him with Moses, Elias and others of the Prophets. He is thought to have died before A.D. 400. — Venerable, Hilarion, the "Newer," monk in Dalmatia. He suffered exile for his resistance to the Iconoclasts. He died A.D. 864.

7th – St. Theodotus, Priest-Martyr, Bishop of Ancyra. "Wonderworker" was cruelly tortured to death for the Faith.

8th – Translation of the Relics of St. Theodore the Great Martyr. (For the other Feast of this Saint, see the 8th day of February.) — Our Holy Father, Ephrem, Patriarch of Antioch.

ST. METROPHANES, FIRST PATRIARCH OF CONSTANTINOPLE

Metrophanes' father, Dometius, the brother of the Roman Emperor Probus, fled from Rome as a Christian during a persecution and settled in Byzantium. He was ordained to the priesthood by Titus, the Bishop of the city. Following the death of Titus, Dometius became Bishop of Byzantium. After death of Dometius, his eldest son, Probus, occupied the Episcopal Throne and, after his death, Metrophanes was elected Bishop.

When Emperor Constantine the Great first saw St. Metrophanes, he loved him as his own father. At the time of the First Ecumenical Council (325), St. Metrophanes was already a man of 117 years. He was unable to participate in the work of the Council, so he appointed the priest Alexander as his representative.

The Emperor, by his intervention at the Council, conferred upon him the title of Patriarch. So, he was the first Patriarch of Constantinople. Further, the Emperor invited the entire Council to visit the ailing and aged Archpastor. When the Emperor asked him whom he wished to name as successor to the Patriarchal Throne, Metrophanes names Alexander. He reposed in peace in the same year, 325.

SECOND WEEK AFTER PENTECOST

Matthew 8:23-27 – When [Jesus] got into the boat, his disciples followed him. And behold, there arose a great storm on the sea, so that the boat was being swamped by the waves; but he was asleep. And they went and woke Him, saying, “Save us, Lord; we are perishing.” And He said to them, “Why are you afraid, O men of little faith?” Then He rose and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm. And the men marvelled, saying, “What sort of Man is this, that even winds and sea obey Him?”

“Lord, save me!” – St. Cyril of Alexandria teaches us that the exclamation “save us” is commendable since it shows faith. But to say “we are perishing” brings a charge of littleness of faith against those who were in deep distress. They indeed put their hope in Christ, Who was sailing with them. They were not totally faithless, but were at that point “of little faith,” since in their danger they did not take courage from the fact of Christ’s being with them.

Christ is always with us. When we become swamped with the events of life, we can forget that He is always with us. When this happens, cry out “Lord, save me!” That is enough. He will not let you perish.
